-SUBSCRIPTION-$1.00 Per Year.

Invariably in Advance. All communication of a privat mature will be charged for an advertising.

THE HERALD JOB OFFICE complete in every reserct. Work don n short notice and on the most reasonabl

VOL. 82.

A copy—Teste
S. Walker, O. K.
Irginia, To wit:
In the clerk's office of the county court of benandoah county, on the 5th day of Dec ext county court.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

J. B WIL . Mr. W. T.WILL AMS. WILLIAMS & BROTHER,

Attorneys-at-Law, WOODSTOCK, VA. Practice in all the Courts of Shenan dost and seleming con ios, in the So treme Court of Appeals, and in the Circuit and District Courts on the United State. State.

See Special attention en to the collection of comms.

Bay 15, 24-tf.

E. D. NEWMAN. M. L. WALTON. WALTON & WALTON,

Attorneys-at-Law,

WOODSTOCK, VA. Practice in all the Courts of Shenan decab and rejeting counties, in the Su-pteme Court of Appenis, and in the Cir-eust and District Courts of the United Special attention to collection of cains Oct. 10, 1911

F. S. TAVENNER. J. M. BAUSER AN. TAVENNER & BAUSERMAN,

Attorneys-at-Law, WOODSTOCK, VA.

JNO. H. DULIN,

Attorney - at - Law,

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA. Will practice in the courts of Shenan deah County.
Office, up stairs, in B. & L. Building sept. 30, '98-lyr pd.

P. W. MAGRUDER JOLMES CONRAD. CONRAD & MAGRUDER,

Attorneys - at - Law.

WOODSTOCK, VA.

LEMUEL BORDEN,

Attorney-at-Law. Office Room S Stickiey and Boyer anding, Woodstock, and at Trioune

D. C. O FLAHERTY. O'FLAHERTY & FULTON,

Attorneys-at-Law,

FRONT ROYAL, VA. Practice in all the Courts and can meet clients for consultation at Woodstock, on Court day or at at any time parties may REFERENCE: Front Royal National Bank, and Bank of Wartan. jan. 5-13r.

DR. J. L. CAMPBELL, Physician and Surgeon,

WOODSTOCK, VA. Tuesdays and Thursdays at home for

Dec. 134, 98-tf.

DD. J. B. RUSH, Dentist

WOODSTOCK, VA. Established in 1889. Office South Main Street. Terms cash.

DR. W. S. CLINE,

Resident Physician. Cails arswered day or night. . Ace and residence over Riches March 4-11

DR. W. C. FORD

Has located in Woodstock and will promptly answer all calls.

LF OFFICE at the residence of Mr. D. I. Walton, of Muhierburg Street.

DR. T. F. LOCKE, Resident Dentist,

OFFICE MAIN T., WOODSTOCK, VA. Chloroform, either and cocaine one of for painless extraction of teeth.

Dec. 36-13 r.

-ESTABLISHED 1872,-J. F. SAUM & CO.,

-WHOLESALE-Produce CommissionMerchants

925 LOUISIANA AVENUE, WASHINGTON. : D. C.

WASHINGTON. P. C.

Solicit shipments of every marketable produce—no matter what—of the Farm. Dairy Poultry and Stock Yard. Shippers paid daily the highest wholesale prices.

25 years (over 20 in this city) of successful experience is guorantes of our business ability to handle shipments satisfactority.

Refer to proprietor of Herald and Citizens National Back or Washington city D. C.

D. C. Mar. 20 '85 1yr.

Wheels, Springs, Spindles, ole, Shafts, Side Bars, Tires, Cushions To is and all huggy repairs constantly on hand If you want your buggy repaired it the best manner and at reasonable CHAS. FOGAL.

Woodsteck, Va. Jan. 14th lyr.

> COAL ! GOAL !

Shenandoah

WOODSTOCK VIRGINIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1899.

creed of the flag' when he asks:

authority which flows from regal

"That idea is entwined with our just after the sermon by the jas-women and men had gone forward to the altar. Some were shout-and inspiration to the poet.

'Shall we turn to the old world again, ". With the penitent prodigal's cry?"

Imperialisl On A Samil Scale.

A Colonial Policy.' EXPANSION, SAYS THE SPEAKER, 18

DENVER, Col., Jan. 17 - Col. ing. It is not ready to retrace its W. J. Bryan made two public steps, and with shamed face and speeches in Denver today, both of trembling voice solicit an humble which were listened to by audiences place among the servants of royonly limited by the capacity of the alty. It has not sinued against auditoriums. The first was at 2 heaven. God grant that the o'clock in the hall of the House of crowned heads of Europe may Representatives, to which only never have occasion to kill the those who hold tickets were ad. fatted calf to commemorate its remitted. The other was at 8 o'clock torn from reliance upon the will of at Coliseum Hall, the largest room the people to dependence upon the lature Mr. Bryan devoted most of "We cannot afford to enter upon his time to a discussion of the a colonial policy. The theory upon daties of legislators and other pub. which a government is built, is a he officers whom he designated as matter of vital importance. The order, there were 5,000 persons in tradition; it permeates our history, the hall and as many more on the it is a part of hierature. That idea And he just simply said, 'I guest I Gov. Charles S. Thomas was pre sented as chairman of the meeting and in an eulogistic speech he introduced Colonel Bryan, who was

Mr. Bryan bad opened his re narks on the question of importalism when the platform, which stood three feet above the floor, began sinking. The audience in front rose to their feet to boit for Tue fruits of imperialism, be they the door, but were unable to make those in the rear understand that jan. 6-st. a 1 accident had happened. The rear of the stage meanwhile collapsed enrirely. The front part remained firm, and the orator was voice of God, that bids us cat." APPLICATION FOR PURCHASE OF DE-

Naboth, and was sorely grieved few were weeping. Saddenly a because the owner thereof refused noise like the bursting of a gan to part with the inheritance of his was heard to come from underfathers. Then followed a plot and neath the altar, followed by a suc-

the place where the dog licked the surplus steam. The pastor gath is the prelude to sire.

Still young, good looking with blood of Naboth shall dogs lick ered in all those who were able to position nor the lowly station of his victim could save him from the avenging hand of outraged justice. his case was tried in a court where neither wealth, nor rank, way between Mrs. Rebecca Feltz nor power can shield the trans are and of a right ought to be berg, 'they used to sell 'niggers' ply the story of Ahab to the anyhow.' wrong in principle as well as ex trate. people of the United States as to berg. 'Suppose men's tastes dif er;

APPLICATION FOR PURCHASE OF DE- BRYAN TALKS OF AHAB "Imperialism might expand the Felezenfeld produced a telegram nation's territory, but it would showing that while in New York Bibical Gharacter Who Was An contract the nation's purpose. It on January 5th he had argued the GENIUS NOT NECESSARY TO COMBAT is not a step forward toward a matter with his wife and brought broader destiny; it is a step back he purchase price down to $100. A MODERN MORAL IS DRAWN ward to the narrow views of kings | He was committed for trial. and emperors. Dr. Taylor has ap

Mrs. Rosenberg left the police propriately exgressed this in 'his station rather crestfallen at having failed to secure Feltzenfeld's release on cash bail, but returned soon with a big basket of deli-"I answer, never. This republic cacies and a bottle of whisky for

AN EXAMPLE OF TRUE COURAGE.

"Don't speak to that fellow; he's a coward." Two young soldiers of Company F of the Seventh were crossing the parade ground on their way to company quarters, and one had saluted and spoken to a comrade passing by.

"Why, the boys in his company all seem to like him. What's the trouble?" "There was a drunken fellow in 14st night, when this fellow from Company F came marching up. sorts of names and dared him to fight, and he never even answered. but turned the corner and came right over to Mack and me.

"I asked him why be didn't lick lieve in fighting.

"I guess you're afraid to fight that dranken bully,' said Mack. am." " has given elequence to the orator "Well" said his hearer, "he dosn't look like a coward." Of course, this story soon sproad the three words, free, freedom and through the garrison, and young man was made the mark for the scoffs and jeers of a certain class among his fellows. In a little while, however, the wars of conquest and of distant regiment was called to the front, to find their so called "coward" bitter or sweet, must be left to the brave, and by his 'gallant conduct subject of monarchy. This is the he proved that it was not cowadice. one tree of which the citizens of but true Christian manliness, that our republic may partake. It is made him afraid to fight a help

Tetter Salt-Libeum and Ecz ma

Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, are cents per package.

WOULD BE NAPOLEON V.

France has the best army in the world-on paper. Insulted by false charges were preferred cession of popping noises, which England, afraid of Germany, unfalse charges were preferred made the congregation think the against Naboth to furnish an exthere was a rush for the door - a number of things but most, per possession, Elijah, that brave old of the women fainted from fright with the girls. That is promising. old prophet of the early days, met When everybady had gotten out it the mark of a really distinguished him and pronounced against him was found that a boiler valve in soldier. He insists on being adthe sentence of the Almighty: 'In the basement was letting off the dressed as imperial highness. Toahours what the French call charfirst attempts you miss the mark. Ehud meur, he has succeeded to missel it. Take mark for thee! Take from him the staff return, and the services were con. out being alarmingly so, at his meur, he has succeeded in charming the Czar. In view of France's spaniel cruch at that Negotiations have been under door, this means a good deal.

His name, too, is potent. Na enfeld, of New York, and Mrs. Bet | poleon may rhyme with Sedan, but it bymes even better with Anster the sale of the former's husband, litz. But why, it has been asked, should the grandson of Jerome conducts a tailoring establishment Bonaparte be Napoleon V1 For conducts a failuring establishment in Battimore and employs thirty rulers have looked with longing eyes upon the lands of others.

"Covetousness is prone to seek wife, charged with desertion. Felt in Battimore and employs thirty hands, including Feltzenfeld, who was arrested on Wednesday by his wife, charged with desertion. Felt in Battimore and employs thirty two reasons—first, because the at doing good you are not very largely the successful. Understand that usefulness would have been was arrested on Wednesday by his wife, charged with desertion. Felt in Battimore and employs thirty two reasons—first, because the at doing good you are not very largely the successful. Understand that usefulness would have been was arrested on Wednesday by his wife, charged with desertion. Felt in Battimore and employs thirty hands, including Feltzenfeld, who was arrested on Wednesday by his was arrested on Wednesday by his was arrested on Wednesday by his was arrested on the felt of the successful. Understand that usefulness would have been an oculist of the reasons. In the felt of the successful understand that usefulness would have been with the science, a trade. There was an oculist of the reasons—first, because the successful Understand that usefulness would have been with the science at rade. There was an occulist of the reasons—first, because the successful Understand that usefulness would have been with the science at rade. There was an occulist performing a very difficult of the reasons—first, because the successful Understand that usefulness would have been an occulist of the reasons—first, because the successful Understand that usefulness would have been an occulist of the reasons—first, because the successful Understand that usefulness would have been an occulist of the reasons—first two reasons—first, because the successful Understand that usefulness would have been an occulist of the reasons—first two reason

STRIKING DOWN SIN. | casy time in this was four may have

POWERS OF EVIL.

Persevere In Doing Good - Persesiasm Will Overcome Difficulties.

Washington, Jan. 22.—From a scene in ancient story Dr. Talmage, in this discourse, draws lessons as appropriate for the time when the event occurred many centuries ago; text, Judges iii, 15, "But when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord the Lord raised them up a deliverer, Ehud, the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man left handed and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon, the king of Moab.

Ehud was a ruler in Israel. He was left handed, and, what was peculiar about the tribe of Benjamin, to which he belonged, there were in it 700 left handed men, and yet so dexterous had they all become in the use of the left hand that the Bible says they could sling stones at a hairbreadth and not Well, there was a king by the name of Eglon, who was an oppressor front of a saloon on Market street of Israel. He imposed upon them a most outrageous tax. Ehud, the man of whom I first spoke, had a divine com-mission to destroy that oppressor. He pay the tax, and asked to see King Eglon. He was told he was in the summer house, the place to which the tax. The drunken brute called him all came, pretending that he was going to ner house, the place to which the king retired when it was too hot to sit in the palace. This summer house was a place surrounded by flowers and trees and "1 asked him why he didn't lick the fellow, and said he didn't be-lieve in fighting.

"1 asked him why he didn't lick springing fountains and warbling birds. Ehud entered the summer house and said to King Eglon that he had a secret errand with him. Immediately all the attendants were waved out of the royal presence. King Eglon rises up to receive the messenger. Ehud, the left handed man, puts his left hand to his right side, pulls out a dagger and thrusts Eglon through until the haft went after the blade. Eglon falls. Ehnd come forth to blow a trumpet of liberty amic the mountains of Ephraim, and a great host is marshaled, and proud Moab submits to the conqueror, and Israel t free! So, O Lord, let all thine enemie perish. So, O Lord, let all thy friend

I learn, first, from this subject th power of left handed men. There are some men who, by physical organiza hand as in their right hand, but the is something in the writing of this tex which implies that Ehud had some de fect in his right hand which compelled him to use his left. Oh, the power of left handed men! Genius is often sel observant, careful of itself, not given aggrandizement, while many a mi defective in physical and mental one a patient industry, an all consuming the kingdom of Christ. Though left handed, as Ehud, they can strike down a sin as great and imperial as Eglon. about them all their ireasures, snuffing dicine and the best in use to put a premises, catching all the pure rain of the cool breeze that came up to shake for in prime condition. Price 25 God's blessing into the stagnant, ropy, feverish trouble out of the king's locks frog inhabited pool of their own selfishness—right handed men, worse than useless—while many a man with large heart and little purse has, out of his limited means, made poverty leap for joy and started an influence that over-

"Thou shalt not covet," thou shalt not covet," thou shalt not bear false witness," thou shalt not kill"—three commandments broken, and still a fourth, "thou shalt not steal," to be broken in order to get a little piece of ground. And what was the resulf. When the King went forth to take possession. Elliph, that brave old they were determined, and yet they were triumphant.
But I do not suppose that Ehnd the hand could throw a stone at a hair-breadth and not miss. I suppose it was his children dead, he longs to be at rest, carefully into the sling, swing it around into the light, where eyes never grow eyes upon the lands of others.

"Coyetousness is prone to seek the airl of false pretense to carry out its plans, but what it cannot its plans, but what it cannot out its plans, but what it cannot its plans, but what it cannot its plans, but what it cannot out its plans, but what it cannot its plans, but what it cannot out its plans, but what it cannot its plans, but what it cannot out its plans, but what it cannot its plans were favorable—and second, because the plans were favorable.

It is worth nothing that the plans were doctor stood by and said: "How easily you do that It don't seem to cause the plans were favorable—and second, because the plans were fa the sword.

"Senator Teller's amendment to the intervention resolutions saved the Cubans from the covetousness of those who are so auxious to secure possession of the island that they are willing to deny the tuth of the declaration of our own to the intervention of our own to the sword.

"It is worth nothing that the third Emperor, in spite of the third Emperor to call the wind. Laughter has gone out of the wind. Laughter has gone out of the wind. Laughter has gone out of the wind. The wind the locks toss no many the wind. The quick real factor to call the wind. The wind the locks toss nor in the wind. Laughter has gone out of the wind. The wind the lock toss nor in the wind. The wind the lock toss nor in the wind. The wind the lock to sa the wind. The wind the wind. Laughter has gone out of the work. The wind the lock to sa the wind. The wind the wind. Laughter has gone out of the work. The wind the wind. Laughter has gone on to wind the wind. Th persecutions and trials and misrepre-sentations, but afterward there comes an eternal weight of glory, and you can bear the wounds, and the bruises, and misrepresentations, if you can have Rev. Dr. Talmage Admonishes I's to the reward afterward. Have you not enough enthusiasm to cry out: "We are

NO. 5.

I learn also from this subject the langer of worldly elevation. This Eglon There were hundreds of people who would have considered it the greatest honor of their life just to have him speak to them, yet although he is so high up in worldly position he is not beyond the reach of Ehud's dagger. I see a great many people trying to climb up in social position, having an idea that there is a seferal so somewhere for hat there is a safe place somewhere far bove, not knowing that the mountain of fame has a top like Mont Blanc, covred with perpetual snow.

We laugh at the children of Shinar for trying to build a tower that could each to the heavens, but I think if our eyesight were only good enough we could see a Babel in many a dooryard. Oh, the struggle is fierce! It is store street againt street, nation against naning is chairs and chandeliers and mirnot safe from calumny while they live. man goes up into publicity, and the world does him honor, and people climb up into sycamore trees to watch him as he passes, and as he goes along on the shoulders of the people there is a wav-ing of hats and a wild huzza. Tomorrow the same man is caught between the jaws of the printing press and mangled and bruised, and the very same persons who applauded him before cry: 'Down with the traitor! Down with Belshazzar sits at the feast, the nighty men of Babylon sitting all around him. Wit sparkles like the wine and the wine like the wit. Music rolls iers flash down on the decanters. The the night air; the voice of revelry floats folded banners, a finger writes. The march of a host is heard on the stairs Laughter catches in the throat. A thou-sand hearts stop beating. The blow is struck. The blood on the floor is richer kingdom has departed. Belshazzar was him. Oh, be content with just such a position as God has placed you in. It may not be said of us, "He was a great general," or "He was an honored chieftain," or "He was mighty in worldly said of you and of me. "He was a good citizen, a faithful Christian, a friend I learn further from this subject that death comes to the summer house.

doorstep, sending their dogs, not to lick fountains; in the sound of a thousand his sores, but to bound him off their leaves fluting on one tree branch; in hind it, and as the waters roll up they feverish trouble out of the king's locks

- there was nothing that spake of Jesus walks. Oh, that in the phosspans the grave and will swing round are agreeable, how difficult it is for us spans the grave and will swing round and round the throne of God, world without end. Amen!

Ah. me! It is high time that you loft handed men, who have been longing for this gift, and that eloquence, and the other man's wealth, should take your left hand out of your pockets. Who made all these cities? Who started all these churches, and schools, and asylums! Who has done the tugging, and running, and pulling? Men of no wonder the fear of God but in blassbeaus. Parents intoxicated, stagblasphemy. Parents intoxicated, stagknowledging themselves to be left handed, and yet they were earnest, and yet they were determined, and yet they they were determined, and yet they the light! Before those little feet stumined the light! ble on life's pathway, give them rest. But I do not suppose that Ehnd the Here is an aged man. He has done first time he took a sling in his left his work. He has done it glariously breadth and not miss. I suppose it was practice that gave him the wonderful and wearily the days and the nights pass. He says, "Come, Lord Jesus, the say of the pass of the says of the says that say the pass of the says of the says of the says of the says." Take another stone, put it and give him the scepter. Up with him your head, take better aim, and the dim, and the hair whitens not through next time you will strike the center

The first time a mason rings his trowel will not do that! Death turns back from upon the brick he does not expect to put up a perfect wall. The first time a carpenter sends the plane over a board or drives a bit through a beam he does not expect to make perfect execution. The first time a low attempts a through the tree branches? Chillenge of the summer house. What does thou here, thou bony, ghastly monster, and this waving grass and under this sunlight effect times a low attempts a through the tree branches? Chillenge of the summer house. The first time a boy attempts a rhyme sifting through the tree branches? Chilhe does not expect to chime a "Lalla dren are at play. How quickly their feet go and their locks toss in the wind. Father and mother stand at the side of the will tumble before you.

When Garibaldi was going out to on the altar morning and night. You When Garibaldi was going out to gary, it was accepted.

It is in this way that history is made.—Collier's Weekly.

So ry, Miss Spooner, but vou're much too pretty for a nurse.

"Sir!"

"Sir!"

"Well, general, what are you will get hunger will get, but you will get hunger will get hunger when concentrated him for a little while in silence, and him so one can be some before the world is so sad a place as one changes. Father is sick. The doors must be kept shut. The death was being silence to be.

"At the fight at Guasimas his horse one they cone the passing the was to death was being of lights from while yet. As she goes from nouse to house, to children and grandchildr her coming is a dropping of sunlight in the dwelling. Your children see her coming through the lane, and they cry, "Grandmother's come!" Care for you has marked up her face with many a deep wrinkle and her back stoops with carrying your burdens. Some day she is very quiet. She says she is not sick, but something tells you you will not much longer have a mother. She will sit with you no more at the table, nor at the hearth. Her soul goes out so gently you do not exactly know the mo-ment of its going. Fold the hands that have done so many kindnesses for you right over the heart that has beat with love toward you since before you were born. Let the pilgrim rest. She is weary. Death in the summer house!

Gather about us what we will of com-

SHEN AN DOAHHERALD

Advertising Rates. Advertisements will be inserted at or dollar per square of ten lines or less, for the first insertion, and 50 cents for each

CF Quarterly or yearly advertisea ent

Wunless the number of insertious is marked upon the manuscript, advertise ments will be published until forbidden spbsequentinsertion.

and charged

fort and luxury. When the pale mes-senger comes, he does not stop to look at the architecture of the house before he comes in, nor, entering, does he wait to examine the pictures we have gathered on the wall, or, bending over whether there is color in the cheek, or the brow. But what of that? Must we stand forever mourning among the graves of our dead? No! No! The peothe graves of their dead, and then they open the cages, and the birds go singing heavenward. So I would bring to the graves of your dead all bright thoughts and congratulations and bid them sing of victory and redemption. I stamp of the bottom of the grave, and it breaks through into the light and the glory of heaven. The ancients used to think that the straits entering the Red sea were very dangerous places, and they supposed that every ship that went through those straits would be destroyed, and they were in the habit of put ting on weeds of mourning for those who had gone on that voyage, as though what they called those straits? The called them the "Gate of Tears." stand at the gate of tears through which many of your loved ones have gone, and I want to tell you that all are not ship breath of hanging gardens floats in on straits into the great ocean stretching Amid wreaths, and tapestry, and that other shore on still nights when we are wrapped in prayer makes me think weep, we who sin—we are the dead. How my heart aches for human sorrow hued than the wine on the table. The This sound of breaking hearts that I hear all about me! This last look of no worse, perhaps, than hundreds of people in Babylon, but his position slew

This last kiss of lips that never will brighten again! speak again! This widowhood and orphanage! Oh, when will the day of sor

After the sharpest winter the spring dismounts from the shoulder of a south ern gale and puts its warm hand upon the grass, and there come the flowers And that in the last day and God reads over the poetry of bird and brook and bloom and pronounces it Eg winter had not its spring, and every time night its day, and every gloom its glow. ton did not expect to die in that fine place. Amid all the flower leaves that and every bitter now its sweet hereaft brifted like summer snow into the win- er! If you have been on the sea, you dow; in the tinkle and dash of the know, as the ship passes in the night, there is a phosphorescent track left bephorescent track of his feet we might all follow and be illumined.

There was a gentleman in a rail car who saw in that same car three passengers of very different circumstances The first was a maniac. He was carfully guarded by his attendants. His mind, like a ship dismasted, was beating against a dark, desolate coast, from which no help could come. The train stopped, and the man was taken out into the asylum, to waste away perhaps through years of gloom. The second passenger was a culprit. The outraged law had seized on him. As the cars joited the chains rattled. On his face were crime, depravity and despair. The train halted, and he was taken out to the penitentiary, to which he had been condemned. There was the third passtances. She was a bride. Every hour was gay as a marriage bell. Life glit-tered and bockoned. Her companion was taking her to his father's house The train halted. The old man was there to welcome her to her new home. and his white locks snowed down upon a pardon. Oh, may it be with us that may find our Father ready to great us to our new home with him forever That will be a marriage banquet. Father's welcome! Father's bosom! Fa ther's kiss! Heaven! Heaven!

"Teddy" and His Specs. "Colonel Roosevelt is very nearsighted." said one of the New Orleans boys who saw service at Santiago. "and when the hot fighting was in progress his luggage consisted almost entirely of spectacles. Near sighted people always have an abiding dread of losing their glasses, knowing their absolute helplessness without such aid, and I was told by one of the New York club coatingent that Roosevelt took particular pains before leaving home to provide against such a disaster.

"He had been in the habit of wear-"He had been in the man't of ing nose glasses with a black silk cord attached, but the arrangement was entirely unsuited to a campaign, where the glasses themselves would be liable to fall off constantly and the cord to catch on twigs. So he substituted very large, round spectacles with steel hooks for the ears and had a dozen pairs person and equipment, trying to dis-tribute them so no one accident could include them all. One pair was sewed

All kinds of cos! for sale. Apply at Wisman's warehouse by phone or in per-M. H. HOTTED.

. M. Mandlebaum. Robert Marsha

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA. FALL OPENING, FRIDAY AND SATUR DAY, OCT. 7th AND 8th.

A full supply of millinery goods, of tath of the declaration of our own all kinds will be received and placed Congress that the people of Cuba 'Hump!' ejaculated Mr4. Rosen on exhibition. An experienced trim-mer from Baltimore has been em free."

ployed. tended to my friends and the public enerally.

Bon't Tobucco Spif and Smoke Your Life Away. To quit tobacce easily and forever, he may eate, full of life, nerve and viror, take No-fix life, the water where that makes west most troug. All bruggists, 50 or $1. Cure guarm, seeu. Bot let and sample free. Address Str

"We Cannot Afford To Enter Upon

In his address before the Legis- birth or superior force.

servants not masters of the people, national idea hasbeen a controlling The crowd which greeted Mr. influence upon the thought and Bryan at Collseum Hall tonight character of the people. Our nationbegan gathering at 4 o'clock, four al idea is self-government, and unhours befor the time set for the less we are ready to abandon that meeting. At $ o'clock, when Hon | idea forever we cannot ignore it in Milton Smitt, chairman of the dealing with the Fitippines, State central committee, called for outside pressing for admission.

received with prolonged applause.

not disturbed.

A dozen women fainting, five fractures, a score of bruises and somewhat serious injury to Moses Van Court, sergean—at arms of the Colorado House of Representatives sums up the result of the brief sums up the sums up the result of the brief sums up the result of the brie panie. Mr. Bryan spoke in part as fol tor, Rev. Dr. Leech, and many thy blood, even thine.' "Neither Ahab's own exalted tinued.

"Wars of conquest have their Morris Feltzenfeld, to Mrs. Rosenorigin in covelousness. The history berg for $150. Mrs. Rosenberg of the hun an race has been written cheaper than that before the war. Mr. Bryan then proceeded to ap. Maybe I'll get him for nothing Parlippine question. He argued Why didn't Fal'zenfeld stav pensive, and as harmful to the 'Don't know,' replied Mrs. Roseu tie Rosenberg, of Baltimore, for that a war of conquest would be with his wirely asked the migis much too pretty for a nurse."

the Filipinos. Mr. Bryan con maybe he likes Bultimore women young man, and, by Jove, the con-